STUDENT TASK: LOOK AT YOUR
ASCENDANT, SUN, MOON

The Ascendant

- Ascendant is the method soul uses to express its purpose
- This is the most important point in the chart
 - Its rulers rule the entire chart
 - What are your Asc rulers?
- How are you able to harness the higher level of the Asc sign?
- Do you have examples of how you have started to:
 - Raise lower sign key phrase to the higher key phrase
- What do you find out about yourself when you:
 - Review sign weaknesses, strengths, and traits to develop
 - Look at aspects the sign rulers make to the Ascendant

3

The Sun

- Expresses the personality level
- How are you able to harness the higher level of the Sun sign?
- Do you have examples of how you have started to:
 - Raise lower sign key phrase to the higher key phrase
- What do you find out about yourself when you:
 - Review sign weaknesses, strengths, traits to develop
 - Look at what aspects the sign rulers make to the Sun
 - Look at what the Sun might be veiling
- Does the Sun make aspect to the Ascendant?
- Have you begun to balance the Sun-Earth axis?
 - What do the house and sign axes tell us about this interaction?

4

The Moon

- Explore past influences and old habits
- What does Moon sign tell you about imprisoning patterns?
 - We overcome them with the sign's esoteric key phrase
 - Do you have examples of working with the soul key phrase?

- Look at what aspects the sign rulers make to the Moon
- Does the Moon make aspect to either the Sun or Ascendant?
- Look at what the Moon might be veiling

5

The Angles

- Ascendant (1st cusp) is opposite Descendant (7th cusp)
 - Exoteric issue is balancing the self and significant other
 - Esoteric purpose is to integrate personality and soul
 - What signs are they in?
- Midheaven (10th cusp) is opposite Nadir (4th cusp)
 - Exoteric issue balancing the career and home life
 - Esoteric purpose is to use sacred foundations for spiritual responsibilities

6

BUILDING BLOCKS TO HELP YOU UNCOVER THE POTENTIAL OF YOUR CHART

The Soul

- Soul is consciousness, or awareness
 - Once consciousness is sparked
 - It sees, hears, and invites more all the time
- Awareness asks for more awareness
 - It wants to make things simple and clear
 - Consciousness brings wisdom, Soul lives it
- Soul is the source of:
 - Our true vocation, our greatest sense of meaningfulness
 - Selflessness and altruism, our most joyous activities
 - Sense of the sacred, our true conscience

The Personality

- Personality is a synthesis of our lower vehicles
 - The physical nature and vital activity
 - Our emotional states and feelings
 - The mind
- It coordinates them and a viable, powerful person emerges
 - Expressing the evolutionary progression and conscious effort achieved in previous lifetimes
- It can be selfish and self-seeking at first
 - Until soul begins to filter in and influence it
- Eventually it integrates with the Soul
 - To express a higher calling in the world of form

Personality Dynamics

- Positive Dynamics, the primary means of
 - Expressing the soul within the 3 worlds of human evolution
 - Establishing personal identity
 - Establishing genuine self-reliance, distinction from the masses
 - Establishing a preliminary vocation
- Negative Dynamics, the primary means of
 - Standing in the way of the soul
 - Evading/failing to respond to the higher calling of the soul
 - Limiting expansion and refusing to grow
 - Expressing selfishness and separateness
 - Self-centering and self-referencing

THE ENVIRONMENT

Quick Look at Overall Implications

- What does the environment look like?
 - Houses, quadrants, and hemispheres
 - Where are the planets focused?
- What elements are there the most of?
 - Can you relate to expressing those characteristics?
 - What element(s) might be lacking?
- What is the primary mode of operation?
 - Changeable, initiatory, or stubborn?
- What do these things tell you about yourself?
 - Do you agree or disagree with the counts?
 - If not, why not?

Houses and Hemispheres

- No matter what level we are at
 - We'll feel the lower levels
 - Most of us still work with personality-level environments
 - Houses have both lower & higher purpose
 - Even as we begin to feel the increasing influence of the soul
 - We still manifest our esoteric work in the outer world
- Planets in different hemispheres show tendencies
 - Northern (introvert, recharging primarily via quiet interludes)
 - Southern (extrovert, recharging primarily via contact with others)
 - Eastern (self-initiated activities, either alone or in a group)
 - Western (group affiliation, following group-initiated activities)

13

Quadrants

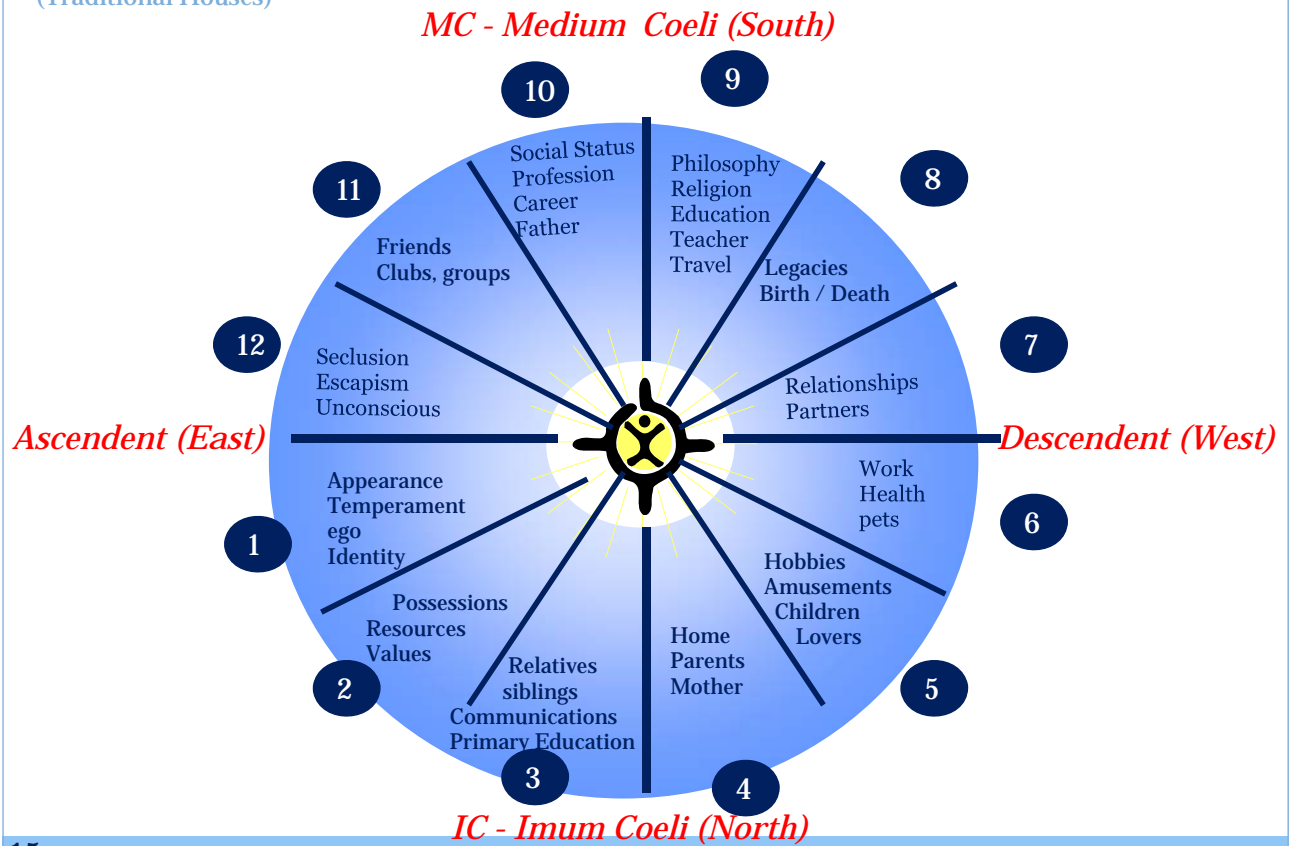

- Different quadrants help pinpoint our focus
 - First Quadrant, Houses 1 to 3:
 - personal identity, self development
 - Second Quadrant, Houses 4 to 6:
 - personal expression, family relations, inner security
 - Third Quadrant, Houses 7 to 9:
 - social identity, worldly issues
 - Fourth Quadrant, Houses 10 to 12:
 - social expression, contribution to public service

Review of the Modes Cardinal, Fixed, Mutable

- These are modes of operating
 - We all have, to some degree or other, all signs and modes
 - But one mode will usually be stronger than the others
 - And show our overarching method of how we accomplish things
 - Are we go-getters, a bit stubborn, or always changing our mind?
- They form crosses in our chart that present challenges
 - These are the hard aspects, oppositions and squares
 - They make us work hard for what we achieve – but it's worth the effort
- Should not be confused with the 3 Crosses of evolution
 - The Mutable Cross is the evolutionary stage for ordinary man
 - The Fixed Cross is the evolutionary stage for advanced humanity
 - The Cardinal Cross is the evolutionary stage for Initiates and upward

31

THE NODAL AXIS

The Nodal Axis in a Chart

- The Moon is, among other things, karmic in nature
 - It represents a repository of our past actions and patterns
 - So the nodal axis carries influences of that energy with it
- The North Node represents potential new qualities
 - Faculties as well as spiritual goals to develop this lifetime
 - Using new experiences to help overcome personality issues
- The South Node is previously achieved integration
 - Past life qualities developed, or the path of least resistance
 - Using past experiences to achieve greater personality integration
 - Like a bag of past achievements we bring to this incarnation
- By nature of it being an axis, it can be quite dynamic
 - Highlighting the axes involved in a chart (by sign and house)

What are the Moon Nodes?

- The lunar nodes are points where the orbit of the Moon crosses the orbit of the Earth
 - The ascending node, or North Node is where the Moon crosses moving in a northerly fashion
 - While the descending node, or South Node is where it crosses moving southward
- They typically move backwards, or retrograde in a chart
 - Although occasionally seem to station and move direct
- They take 18 years to complete one cycle
 - So are in a sign about 1.5 years at a time

37

Nodes in the Signs

- Aries-Libra: karmic opportunities to help establish mental control over the personality, and eventual soul control over the personality.
- Taurus-Scorpio: karmic opportunities to use the wisdom of the soul to overcome desire through right relationships.

Nodes in the Houses

- First-Seventh: working on the balance between the self and the significant other; transforming your relationship between your personality and soul.
- Second-Eighth: learning to enjoy the world of the senses without being consumed by it; using higher spiritual values directed by the soul to transmute the lower desires of the personality.
- Third-Ninth: keeping curiosity about life alive, while having clear priorities about what is most important for you to learn; accessing and using the ancient wisdom via the higher mind.
- Fourth-Tenth: making room for both home and career; using your sacred foundations to build on spiritual responsibilities.

 - But in Libra for about 7 years
 - Taking abt 50 years to transit all signs
- His orbit is primarily found between Saturn and Uranus
- But touches just inside Saturn's to just outside Uranus' orbit
 - For this reason he's considered the bridge
 - ✦ The archetype of the antahkarana
 - ✦ Mediating between personality limitations (Saturn) and spiritual intuition (Uranus)

43

Chiron's Purpose in our Chart

RETROGRADES

A Transiting Affair

- In normal, cyclic, everyday life, most planets retrograde from time to time (Sun, Earth, and Moon do not retrograde)
 - ✓ We call these transits, the daily movement of the planets
 - ✓ They effect everyone via these transits and resulting retrogrades
 - ✓ Depending on where the transit falls within our natal charts
 - ✓ They interact with our natal planets, make aspect, form relationships, and trigger events relating to the houses and planets they transit
 - ✓ Transit may only last from a few hours to a few years, they can awaken something that was previously dormant in our charts
- In all cases, we only have a fleeting, elusive expression of a transiting planet unless it actually makes contact in our natal chart
 - ✓ It can be felt in general terms, but not in specifics
 - ✓ It is only when it makes contact with something in our natal chart that it can stimulate or trigger some kind of expression

Retrograde Planets The Natal Experience

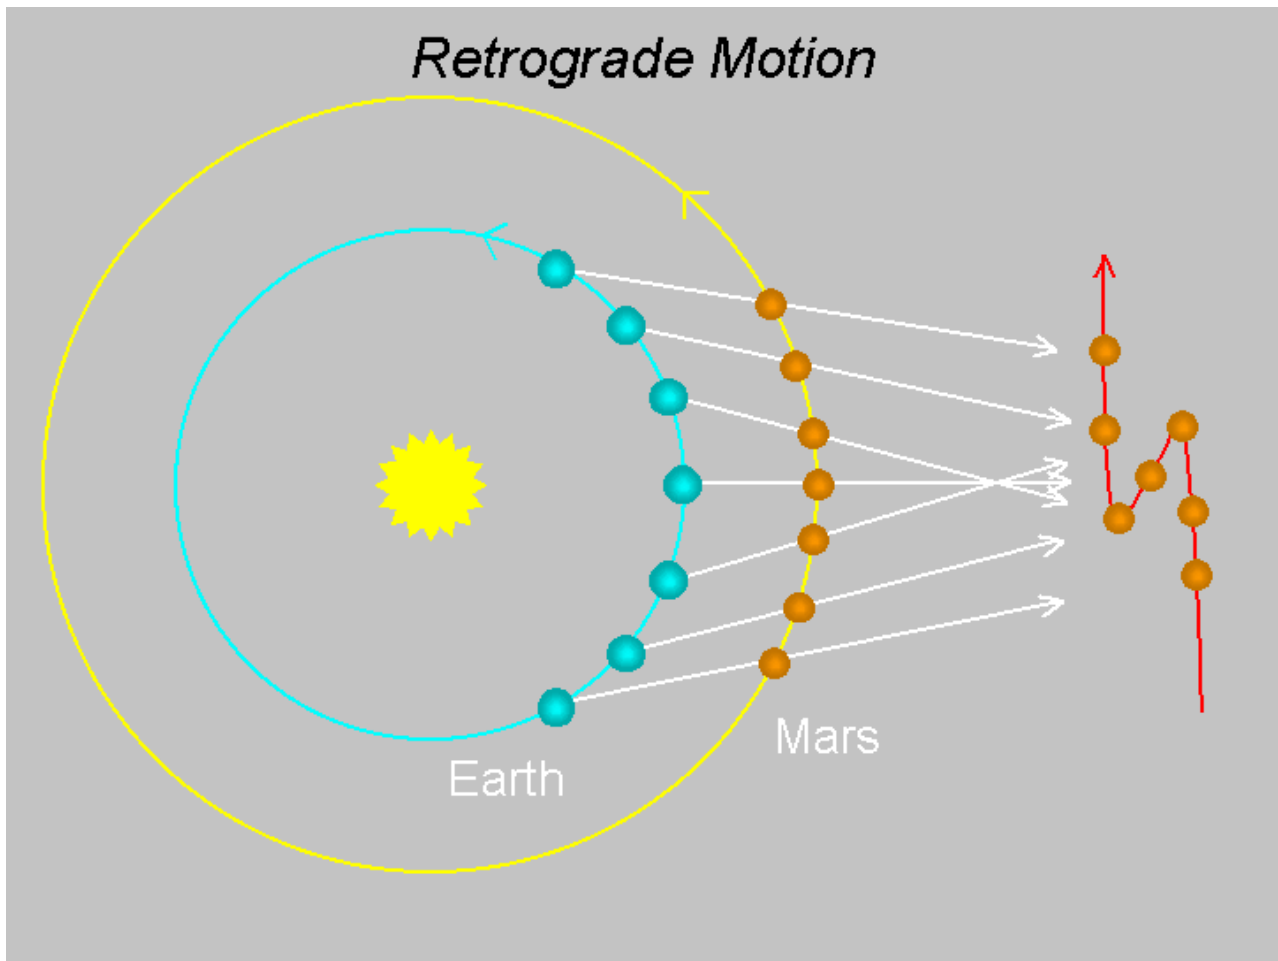

- So we can experience a transiting planet going direct or retrograde
 - ✓ But it depends on where the transit falls within our natal charts
- Or we could be born with some retrograde planets in our chart
- Natal retrograde planets will be felt differently than a direct planet
 - ✓ They will be inhibited somehow
- Maybe we experience it more internally, carefully, reflectively
 - ✓ Are we constantly looking back over what we've already done, making sure it's right?
 - ✓ Do we frequently get the opposite or unexpected impact from something we did?
 - ✓ Are we learning from the experience of our retrograde planets?
 - ✓ Can we look at it from the perspective of the Soul, observing the inner causes of some outer effects?

63

Why a Planet Goes Retrograde

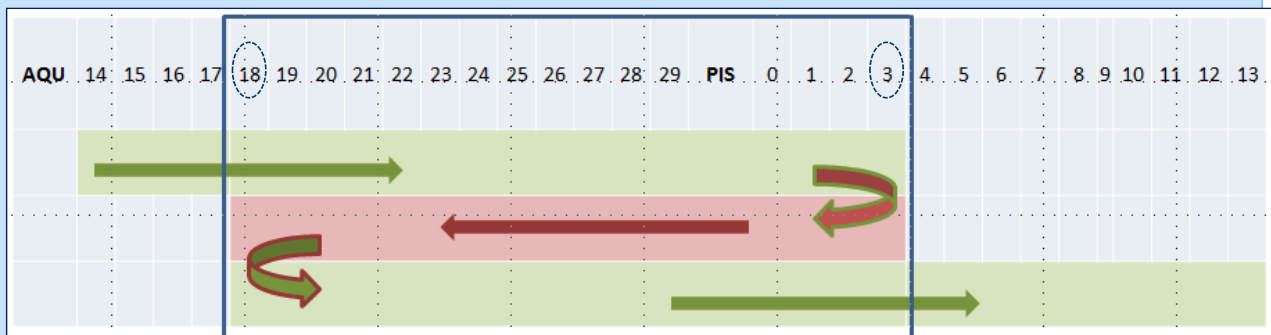

- Appear to move retrograde based on position of Earth & Planet
 - ✓ Always when the planet is opposite the Sun (conjunct the Earth)
 - ✓ The Earth catches up with an outer planet, then passes it
 - ✓ Also when an inner planet catches up with the Earth
 - ✓ This is observed to us on Earth as the planet moving backwards
- Planets closest to the Earth (Mars & Venus) retrograde least often

64

3rd Time is the Charm

- There are 3 distinct passes in a retrograde cycle
 - ✓ the first pass over a span of degrees as the planet moves forward
 - ✓ the second pass over those same degrees as it goes retrograde
 - ✓ and finally the third pass as it moves direct once more
 - ✓
- So the cycle includes all 3 passes, and spans the degrees hit 3 times

Retrograde Planets

- Inner planets in retrograde
 - ✓ Mercury retrogrades the most often, abt 22 days every 4 months
 - ✓ Venus retrogrades for 42 days every 19 months
- Outer Planets usually retrograde longer and more often
 - ✓ Mars retrogrades for 72 days every 25.6 months
 - ✓ Jupiter retrogrades for 121 days every 13.1 months
 - ✓ Saturn retrogrades for 138 days every 12.4 months
 - ✓ Uranus retrogrades for 151 days every 12.15 months
 - ✓ Neptune retrogrades for 158 days every 12.07 months

67

Impact of a Planet in Retrograde

- Outer planets are retrograde a significant amount of time
 - ✓ So we won't discuss them in detail for this webinar
 - ✓ But the same principles apply to them as with the planets we will be discussing
- In all cases, retrogrades will be felt differently for those people who have them in their natal chart
- But it's hard to qualify what will be different, or how each one of us might express a retrograde planet
 - ✓ They might call for more reflection on actions than usual
 - ✓ This can result in more internalization of the planetary expression
 - ✓ Or it could be inhibited in some other way

68

Energy of the more Personal Planets

- Mercury: Intellect, communication, lower mind
- Venus: Love, refinement, values, right relations
- Mars: Desire, anger, activity, motivation, reaction
- Jupiter: Expansion, opportunity, higher education/beliefs
- Saturn: Responsibility, authority, structure, limitation

Mercury Intellect, Communication, Lower Mind

- In a fire sign, he is usually bright, excitable, intuitive, expressive
 - ✓ Rx he may be more intuitive & creative, but it will probably be less obvious about how that is expressed.
- In an earth sign, he is apt to be logical, down-to-earth, practical

Signs Locked in a House

- Intercepted signs are locked in a house as if they are in a closet.
 - ✓ One key to the closet can be the ruler of the intercepted sign
- With intercepted planets, it is important to release their energies
 - ✓ Because they rule the cusp of other houses
 - ✓ This takes time and work
- At first it appears as if the early environment does not encourage the development of energies described by the intercepted planet(s)
 - ✓ At least not to the degree that you need them.
 - ✓ This is frustrating because it also affects the areas of your life that these intercepted planets may rule

77

Unlocking Interceptions

- Transiting planets can help to unlock the closet
 - ✓ They create a temporary relationship with the intercepted planet
 - ✓ Triggering events that help:
 - ✓ Open the interception
 - ✓ Release the planet's energy
 - ✓ Promote a more fuller expression of intercepted planets/signs
- Also look at the ruling planets for the intercepted signs
 - ✓ Do they form aspects with any planets intercepted in the sign?
 - ✓ If so, is that relationship friendly or challenging?
- Experience and personal growth help as well
 - ✓ As we get older and learn to better express higher qualities
 - ✓ And in doing so more fully express Soul qualities of the intercepted signs, rulers of those signs, and the planets intercepted

78

Signs Repeated on Two Cusps

- Not only are two signs intercepted
 - ✓ Inhibiting the expression of those 2 signs
 - ✓ And planets in those signs
- But it then forces two other signs on two cusps each
 - ✓ Giving double emphasis to the repeated axis
 - ✓ Highlighting the area that needs extra work
- When this happens, the first cusp is usually the primary focus
 - ✓ The second, repeated cusp follows the lead of the first
 - ✓ And can be considered dependent on the first house for its fulfillment, using the experience already being worked in the prior house

Understanding the Sign Axes

- Aries-Libra is aggression versus harmony; self versus society. It is establishing balance/soul control over the personality.
- Taurus-Scorpio axis is practical versus compulsive; possessive versus intensive. It is using wisdom of the soul to establish right relationships.
- Gemini-Sagittarius axis is versatility versus overextending; knowledge versus wisdom. It is establishing control of the opposites through spiritual action.
- Cancer-Capricorn nurturing versus authority; sensitivity versus responsibility. It is nurturing the intuition of the soul in preparation for initiation.
- Leo-Aquarius axis is personal versus impersonal; creative versus unconventional. It is self-mastery leading to group awareness and selfless world service.
- Virgo-Pisces is analytical versus idealistic; discriminating versus fanatical. It is nurturing the Christ within the heart and consciously manifesting it.

MAJOR CONFIGURATIONS

Seeing the Big Picture

- We look at individual planets, but also configurations
 - ✓ Are aspects friendly in nature or adversarial?
 - ✓ What signs and houses are involved?
- How are we expressing that energy?
 - ✓ Are we working at the higher or lower expressions?
 - ✓ Can we see how both work together in our make up?
- How does it all fit together?

No Planet Stands Alone

- A planet is like a child in a big, extended family
 - ✓ Yes, they are that person, and the child of those parents
 - ✓ But they are also an important part of a larger family
 - ✓ And family dynamics will always influence the whole
- So we explore relationships (aspects) between planets
 - ✓ Are the planets themselves compatible in nature?
 - ✓ Are the aspects friendly or aggravating in nature?
- We're looking to see how everything interacts as a whole

Primary Aspects

Aspect	Nature of Aspect	True Angle
Conjunction	Combined power	0° apart
Square	A challenge	90° apart
Trine	A benefit	120° apart
Opposition	Awareness	180° apart

A Grand Cross

A Grand Cross (or Grand Square) is formed when one set of opposing planets (A to B) are at 90 degrees from another set of opposing planets (C to D). This forms a cross within the natal chart; also a square at the outer edges.

Exoterically, it tends to bring conflicting energies to awareness through the two oppositions, motivating action through the stress of the squares to resolve the issues presented by the planets, signs, and houses involved.

Esoterically, the goal is to balance both axes and find the way to the center of the Cross, wielding all 4 energies in synergy with the soul controlling the hub. Then the person no longer regards the energies as opposites or squares, but as integrated activity of their combined energies and mode of activity (Cardinal, Fixed, or Mutable).

A T-Square

A T-Square means there are 3 of the 4 points necessary for a Grand Cross. It indicates the missing leg of a Grand Cross needs attention. Instead of continuously having all 4 points represented and being able to work with them at all times, with the T-Square it will be in fits and starts.

The 3 points in the natal chart work together as best they can until a transiting planet wanders across the area of the missing point and activates the Grand Cross. Because the person isn't normally used to the impact of the full cross, it may prove to be challenging at the weak point until they can truly use the synergy of the integrated cross.

A Grand Trine

A Grand Trine means a planet is represented in all 3 signs of an element, and all 3 are trine to each other (A to C, C to B, B to A). We can benefit from them depending on the house and planets involved.

The planets will normally work together with extraordinary compatibility, understanding and creativity. The problem is we may take them for granted; so may need to make the effort to consciously use the energy effectively so it won't lie dormant.

TRANSITS

Transits - Life Moves On

- Life is cyclic – there are a myriad of cycles swirling around us
 - ✓ Some we notice outwardly, day and night, lunar cycles, seasons
 - ✓ Some are personal to our little microcosm, like birthdays
- All effect us in their own way
- Many impacts are on the inner planes, subtly prompting us
 - ✓ These can be opportunities for growth or change
 - ✓ Or may seem at times like major crises
- But it's all the natural rhythm of life
 - ✓ We have phases (child, teen, young adult, mid - life, old age)
 - ✓ And the planets in our natal chart aid the progress of each phase

91

How Does it Impact the Natal Chart

- Transits in themselves are global in nature
 - ✓ The Moon goes through all 12 signs every 28 days
 - ✓ Sun, Earth, and the inner planets all move relatively quickly
- But they only become personal in relation to our natal chart
 - ✓ I have a Mutable T-Square
 - Asc at 22 Gem, Mars at 25 Sag; squared by Ven at 24 Vir
 - So any transit to 22-25 Virgo completes the Cross
 - And any transit to 22-25 Mutable signs stimulates the T-square
 - ✓ I also have a Cardinal T-Square
 - Merc/Uran at 24 Can, Chi at 24 Cap; Nep at 23 Lib
 - Any transits to 23-24 Aries completes the Cross
 - And any transit to 23-24 Cardinal signs stimulates the T-square
- Something is always going on 92

Transiting Cycles of the Outer Planets

- Some have relatively normal orbits with predictable transits
 - ✓ Saturn has a 29.5 - year orbit, with milestones abt every 7 years
 - ✓ Uranus has an 84 - year orbit, with milestones abt ages 21, 42, 63
 - ✓ Neptune has a 164.8 - year orbit, with milestones abt ages 42, 84
- Others have highly elliptical orbits, so their phases differ widely
 - ✓ Chiron has a 50 - year orbit, in Libra abt 1.5 years, in Aries abt 7
 - ✓ Pluto has a 248 - year orbit, in Taurus abt 31 years, in Scorpio only 12
- Several points in our lifetime some of these cycles converge
 - ✓ Creating multiple stress points at one time (about age 21, 42, 63, 84)
 - Or setting up in rapid succession for a series of one - two punches
- By observing their placement in our chart the patterns emerge
 - ✓ The patterns are similar for everyone – these are normal cycles
 - ✓ But the signs/houses are unique to both our inner and outer growth

94

PROGRESSIONS

Progressions

- Two types of progressions we typically look at
 - ✓ Secondary Progressions
 - Ratio is based on the primary movement of the planet
 - So outer planets progress much slower than inner planets would
 - ✓ Solar Arc Directed
 - Moves every planet/point 1 degree for every year of life
 - So at age 30, all planets are 1 sign ahead; age 60 are 2 signs ahead
- With both, the assumption is that we learn and grow as we age
 - ✓ And so begin to work with the energy of the progressed signs
 - ✓ It doesn't negate the natal energy, but augments it

We are a Living, Evolving Entity

- The Natal Chart shows our make-up at birth
 - ✓ What energies we needed for our work this lifetime
 - ✓ As we age and evolve we get hints through our progressions
 - ✓ And see how transits activate our charts at any given time
- Are we working from the personality or soul level?
- Ideally we are using this energy at the higher levels
 - ✓ The path of least resistance may kick in at stressful times
 - ✓ Yet ultimately those are our greatest lessons
 - Allowing us to transform lower traits into higher correspondences

Outer-Planetary Transits or Progressions

The outer planets are movers and shakers, frequently causing disorder in our lives; the following tips might help you understand this energy better:

- Exoterically, using Saturn transits positively brings increased responsibility, positions of authority, sound structures, and planned limitations; challenging transits could involve stress from too much responsibility, fighting with authority, being limited, or a crumbling of your foundations. Esoterically, Ray 3 (Active Intelligence) brings abstract views, sincerity, clarity of intellect, patience, caution, and planning. Guard against its vices, including mental pride, deviousness, inaccuracy, obstinacy, and criticalness.
- Exoterically, using Chiron transits positively involves encountering (or being) a teacher or mentor and uncovering and healing deep wounds; challenging transits could involve encountering unpleasant situations that you will eventually see as a learning or healing experience. Esoterically, Ray 2 (Love-Wisdom) brings calm, strength, endurance, patience, love of truth, intuition, and serenity. Guard against its vices, including coldness, indifference, self-pity, fear, and love of being loved.

Outer-Planetary Transits or Progressions

- Exoterically, using Uranus transits positively involves doing humanitarian work, being progressive and innovative in your work and life, exploring subjects that awaken your consciousness, and fostering brotherhood between everyone; challenging transits could involve rebellions, sudden and drastic changes, attitudes of being detached from situations, or perceptions of being cold in your feelings towards others. Esoterically, Ray 7 (Ceremonial Order) brings strength, perseverance, courage, courtesy, detail, self-reliance, and practicality. Guard against its vices, including formality, bigotry, pride, superficial judgments, and narrowness.
- Exoterically, using Neptune transits positively involves encountering mystical or psychic experiences that further your faith in a higher being; challenging transits could involve finding an escape mechanism from your troubles through drugs, alcohol, or possibly even insanity. Esoterically, Ray 6 (Idealism and Devotion) brings single-mindedness, tenderness, intuition, loyalty, reverence, and loving. Guard against its vices, including selfishness, jealousy, sentimentality, deceptiveness, fiery anger, narrowness, and fanaticism.

Outer-Planetary Transits or Progressions

- Exoterically, using Pluto transits positively involves self-initiated changes that need to be made and learning to use power wisely; challenging transits could involve changes happening to you unexpectedly, a misuse of oppressive power that impacts you, or a death that is close to you. Esoterically, Ray 1 (Will and Power) brings strength, courage, steadfastness, truthfulness, fearlessness, trustworthiness, and large-mindedness. Guard against its vices, including ruthlessness, hardness, coldness, pride, arrogance, ambitiousness, tyranny, cruelty, and a need to be controlling.
